

THE NEW YORK MEGAPHONE

Truth is the Heartbeat of Democracy.

We are the New York Megaphone. We are a 100,000 circulation, full-color, maverick newspaper. We go beyond the confines of the corporate media.

We take a stand against US government corruption, and the influence of big money in politics. We have an active email list of 45,000, and we distribute our paper throughout the heart of NYC. We are a great media vehicle for small businesses to grow with.

We promote and support important independent journalism: free speech issues in an age of corporate media censorship, new paths to peace in the Middle East, and criticism of President Trump. We provide support for activists and progressives and patriots, such as the Lawyers Committee for 9/11 Inquiry, as one example.

The Megaphone was originally published from 2005 to 2008 by a team of “Citizen journalists pursuing the unreported story” as a part of the Vox Pop coffeehouse in central Brooklyn. Publisher Sander Hicks has won awards for starting Vox Pop and for his independent publishing about George W. Bush.

We are part of the new national movement, where new political candidates sweep out old-guard calcified corruption. We will support the candidacies of progressives like our friend, Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez. Sander Hicks, publisher of The New York Megaphone, has appeared on 60 Minutes, CNN, Cinemax/HBO, Press TV, and repeatedly in the New York Times.

The New York Megaphone's look is edgy, smart and sharp. Distribution is all around Midtown, East Village, Upper East Side, Lower East Side, Midtown, Williamsburg, Greenpoint, and Astoria/LIC. The paper is free and our paid staff will distribute the paper outside subways, and in cafes, bars, restaurants, apartment buildings, and public housing. We are active in rallying support for progressive candidates throughout our neighborhoods, and in our area, the 12th Congressional District.

We support progressive economics. We support new forms of national banking, to help small business. So locally, we fully support our advertisers. We produce release parties and live events so that we can all network, as readers, writers, and advertisers. Nothing beats a smile and a handshake to meet new potential customers.

Highlights of the New York Megaphone's Previous Exclusive and Daring Journalism!

We broke stories on FBI corruption in NYC and Shreveport, LA. In NYC, we focused on the Lin DeVecchio scandal, in which an FBI Supervisory Agent was indicted on four counts of murder. But the case fell apart in court when the prosecution took a "Dive to the Mat." We exposed the corruption of Governor Eliot Spitzer, including his role in the insurance fraud of Larry Silverstein, of Silverstein Properties. We broke the story of Spitzer filing an "Amicus Brief" to help Silverstein reap an extra billion dollars in insurance money for 9/11/01.

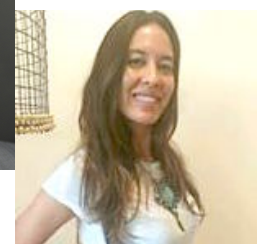

We care for the environment!

We have broken important stories on public health, and the threat of excessive cell phone usage. New studies in Europe received media exposure, but in the USA, the risks were ignored. We published original art and radical comics by artists such as Seth Tobocman and Rebecca Migdal.
